

‘Heroes of History’ Field Trip

At the MBA – The Museum of Biblical Art, Dallas TX

Your students take a journey through time, learning all about the history of the past 2000 years! People like George Washington, Martin Luther King, Thomas Edison, Anne Frank, Abraham Lincoln and many others are all featured. The Tapestry mural teaches about the past triumphs and tragedies, good and evil, and about heroes and villains. History will come alive for your students!

- ✓ Learn about history through ‘The Tapestry of the Centuries’ Mural and about the Heroes of History
- ✓ Art Lesson– Discover How Artists Create Images
- ✓ Guided Tour of The Museum of Biblical Art
- ✓ Live Drama – Meet 3 Heroes from History
- ✓ See New Installation- Life-Size Painting ‘The Resurrection’
- ✓ Take a Scavenger Hunt– Find Objects for Prizes

Our next ‘Heroes of History’ Field Trip is: Friday April 26th 9:30am to 11:45am

Regular admission to the museum is $12. We have a special program where students can take part in the Heroes of History Field Trip for only $5. We also provide a space for students to eat their lunch. This will be an unforgettable experience to see the new museum, learn about history and learn about art.
